Re: Julie Roginsky v. Fox News Network LLC, Roger Ailes and Bill Shine,
Index No. 153065/2017 (Sup. Ct., New York Cty.)

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are counsel for plaintiff Julie Roginsky (“Plaintiff”) in the above-captioned, which is a civil action pursuant to § 8-502(a) of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (“Administrative Code”). Plaintiff asserts claims for unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation against defendants Fox News Network LLC (“Fox News”), its former Chairman and CEO Roger Ailes, and its current co-President Bill Shine. Pursuant to § 8-502(c) of the Administrative Code, we are hereby serving the Corporation Counsel with a copy of Plaintiff’s Complaint, which Plaintiff filed on April 3, 2017.

As the Corporation Counsel may be aware, the media has recently reported on a number of claims that have been asserted against Fox News, its management, and/or its on-air personalities for unlawful discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation, in addition to Plaintiff’s claims. Plaintiff remains a paid contributor/on-air personality for Fox News and wishes to be able to work in an environment free from unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. We respectfully request that the Corporation Counsel conduct an investigation into non-compliance with the New York City Human Rights Law at Fox News, including the claims asserted in Plaintiff’s Complaint.

Respectfully,

Martin S. Hyman

Encl.
